DANGERS OF A COLD

Norway People Will Do Well to Heed Them.

Many bad cases of kidney trouble result from a cold or chill. Congested kidneys fall behind in filtering the poisonous blood and backache, headache, dizziness and disordered kidney action follow. Don't neglect a cold. Use Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of kidney trouble. Follow this Norway resident's example:

Wm. O. Needham, retired farmer, Main St., says: "At different times when I have taken cold, my kidneys have become affected. Several years ago when I felt that my kidneys needed attention, I got Doan's Kidney Pills from P. P. Stone's Drug Store. They strengthened my kidneys, ridding my system of the excess uric acid and in a short time I felt much better."

Eight years later, Mr. Needham said: "I still gladly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. My confidence in them is as strong as ever. I occasionally use Doan's when I feel in need of them and always get fine results."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Needham had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 47-48

EAST SUMMER

Mrs. Ray Palmer and little son Harold of Boston are visiting at F. W. Palmer's. She sang a solo at the Congregational Church Sunday morning. The people here are always glad to hear her sweet voice.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Stephens and son Paul are taking an auto trip through New Hampshire, Vermont and Connecticut.

Eastman-Merrill

Esther Hersey Eastman and Lester Wallace Merrill were married at the home of the bride last Thursday noon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. G. Berkeley on the veranda beneath an arch of evergreen and white roses. The guests were assembled on the lawn and during the service the sweet notes of a song sparrow were heard which seemed a good omen of happy days to come.

The couple were attended by Ethel Bonney as bridesmaid and James H. Heald as best man. The bride wore a white Georgette dress and veil which was fastened with white rose buds, and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

The bridesmaid wore a hand embroidered lavender voile and carried a bouquet of lavender sweet peas. There were many useful and beautiful gifts. The guests from away were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stetson and chauffeur Don Burns of South Weymouth, Mass., Jeannette Bailey of Winthrop, Gertrude Schonland Alta Jones and Marjorie Griffin of Portland, Mary, Lilla and Gertrude Stetson, Leander Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Pearl of Auburn.

The wedding march was played by Muriel Palmer, a cousin of the bride. Mrs. Merrill is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eastman and has taught school several years, having graduated from the Gorham Normal School three years ago.

Mr. Merrill is the son of Leander Merrill and is a steam fitter of Cleveland, Ohio. After the ceremony a reception was held and fruit punch, cake and fancy crackers were served.

The happy couple left on the afternoon train for their home in Cleveland, after being plentifully deluged with confetti by the merry company.

Rev. L. M. Robinson of Philadelphia has arrived at his summer home. Children's Day was observed at the Grange Saturday, when a fine program was carried out.

A Merry Medley Of Mistakes

By M. V. F.

Mistakes are the misplays or misdeeds that by falsity or through fault or from fear are made by mortals when playing the great game of life, and our misplaying and misdealing may be merry or mournful according to results reaped. It has been said that when mortals make mistakes the immortals mourn, while demon cohorts chuckle to see life's cards "decked" and the glorious game blocked or balled—the arch-demon himself grins grimly in ghoulish glee, whenever by feeble and futile means men try to make their mistakes masquerade as methods and matters meritorious. Mistakes at best are but miserable messes, yet many might be more readily condoned if they were openly confessed as such. Listen! while we list some few of the many messes and their methods of masking.

When the mechanic makes a mistake it's the fault of the machine.
When the carpenter makes a mistake it's dull tools or dead wood.
When the plumber makes a mistake it's somewhere hid in the bill.
When the metre reader makes a mistake it's indisputable truth.
When the professor makes a mistake he calls the student a dunce.
When the student makes a mistake he thinks the professor a dolt.
When the judge makes a mistake it becomes a deeply profound law.
When the lawyer makes a mistake, it is new money for an old case.
When the juror makes a mistake it's "bingo" for the "mis-taken."
When the scientist makes a mistake it's a scientific discovery.
When the layman makes a mistake it's a lie printed in the book.
When the doctor makes a mistake it's buried as wrong diagnosis.
When the surgeon makes a mistake the patient dies from "shock."
When the patient makes a mistake it's cemetery or grief for him.
When the undertaker makes a mistake—the corpse doesn't care.
When the preacher makes a mistake nobody knows the difference.
When the fanatic makes a mistake Beelzebub has a hearty laugh.
When the skeptic makes a mistake it's canvassing for the devil.
When the man makes a marriage mistake he's titled as a "fool."
When the woman makes a like mistake she's jeered at as a fool.
When the pianist makes a mistake he hails the pianist as a fool.
When the singer makes a mistake he says the singer's a scrub.
When the brass-blower makes a mistake it gets by as great jazz.
When the clarinetist makes a mistake the fiddler was all wrong.
When the fiddler makes a mistake it's acoustics, heat or hall.
When the drummer makes a mistake he passes the leader a "look."
When the leader makes a mistake it's the drummer gets a "call."
When the magazine makes a mistake (?) it's a misprint of course.
When the publisher makes a mistake it's office boy or "stenog."

CAPTAIN HILL HAD TO LEAVE HIS SHIP

Could Not Walk Ten Feet Until Tanlac Restored His Health, He Declares

"I really could not let you go without telling of the good Tanlac has done for me, for anyone who has been benefited as I have by Tanlac should not only be willing but anxious for the sake of others to tell of it," said Captain Ernest H. Hill, 52 Chestnut St., Portland, Me., while telling of his wonderful experience to a "Tanlac representative, recently. Capt. Hill, who for ten years was captain of vessels plying between Portland and the Popular Islands of Casco Bay, is now captain of the Ben Hur, and is undoubtedly one of the most popular commanding officers of vessels in this harbor. Continuing, he said:

"For the past eight years I have been in a badly run-down condition, and before I started taking Tanlac I could hardly stand up. When I walked I would have to hold onto something to get about at all. After every meal I would be in the worst sort of misery and bloated terribly from the formation of gas as my appetite was so poor I had to force down every mouthful I ate. My nerves were in such bad condition I could get but little sleep and sometimes I would nearly jump out of the bed. I would also have smothering spells at night when I would have to get up to get my breath and then I would become so weak I would just fall back into the bed again. Lots of times I would have to open the windows and doors of my room to let in fresh air or get out of the room into the open in order to get my breath. In the mornings I always felt worse than when I went to bed. I kept getting worse and along toward the last I became so weak I could not do my work, and I could not walk ten feet without becoming exhausted. "I decided to try Tanlac after everything else had failed to do me any good, and I am certainly glad I did, for I have not taken more than two bottles when I could eat anything I wanted without being troubled with gas or bloating and I feel much better in every way. Well, I continued taking it, and while I have taken only five bottles, all my troubles have been completely overcome. I feel as good as I did when I was twenty years old, and can get about as well as I ever could, my work is a pleasure to me. I sleep as sound as a child every night and never wake up until someone wakes me, and always get up feeling good. I really can't say too much for Tanlac as it has made a new man of me."

Tanlac is sold in Norway by A. L. Clark Drug Co. in West Paris by S. T. White, and by O. H. Haskell, Sweden, R. F. D. from Harrison.

Dividends are paid steadily through good times, bad times and panics, by some few companies.

Hydro-electric companies are close to the top in this class.

In 1907, when the gross earnings of the "Industrial group" fell off 50 per cent. and railroad receipts decreased 10 per cent., the earnings of gas and electric companies actually increased about 8 per cent.

One of the most stable of hydro-electric securities is the preferred stock of Central Maine Power Co. The Company serves part of a great and growing state with a product in active demand. It supplies a great number of towns and cities, mostly small; and sells its energy to a vast number of industries, highly diversified.

The rates which it charges are under the control of the Public Utilities Commission, which has placed itself on record that it will allow rates which will provide a reasonable return on the value of the property. This is a great protection to stockholders.

Considering all the talk of a "financial depression"—which gives some indication of being more talk than depression—it is well to consider, in buying securities and especially those which promise a fancy return, whether or not they will continue to pay dividends through hard times as well as good.

Then, if you consider Central Maine Preferred about the sort of a security to meet your requirements, why not send the coupon and get full information.
